

Our Vision

We are an innovative community organisation modelling best practice in order to strengthen and build sustainable and resilient communities.

Our Purpose

We are an accessible, dynamic community organisation which is inclusive and responsive to diverse family and community needs.

We advocate proactive community development and well-being based on the values of empowerment, social justice and respect.

What you can expect from us

Quality Responsive Services

We will provide the best services to you that we possibly can and respond to any queries or requests as quickly as possible. This means that:

- We will answer the phone promptly;
- We exist to support all members of the community to connect with whatever support or resources they are seeking, if we can't help you, we will try to put you into contact with someone who can;
- We will respond to all your phone messages, letters and emails;
- We welcome feedback to help us know what we are doing well and to give us ideas on how we can improve;
- If you lodge a complaint or appeal a decision, we have a clear Complaints and Appeals process that will assist you to understand and address your concerns;
- We have a comprehensive set of policies and procedures that you can access via our Reception staff at either of the Centres that will provide you with more information about what you can expect when you access our services.

Courtesy and Respect

We embrace individuality, difference and diversity and will treat you with courtesy and respect.

- We recognise the importance of tailoring our services to meet your individual needs while still working within the boundaries of the services that we provide;
- We acknowledge that all community members have a right to make decisions and choices in their lives;
- You should always feel safe and valued when accessing our organisation and our services.

Fairness and Access

We recognise that all people in our community are individual, come from a range of different backgrounds and experiences, have varying preferences and lifestyles and have broad spectrum of abilities.

We strive to provide services and access to our organisation that minimises barriers and is allocated in a fair manner. This includes culturally appropriate practice, catering to different abilities, being inclusive of diversity and being able to implement solutions to enable effective communication. It also means we have clear and transparent processes for deciding who is provided with access to our services.

Privacy and Confidentiality

We acknowledge that everyone has a right to dignity, respect, privacy and confidentiality. We will uphold your right to this by protecting the personal information that you provide to us. We will collect, store and use your personal and confidential information responsibly.

There may be some circumstances where we are not able to keep some parts of your information private, but we will explain this to you when you first start accessing services with us and any time it needs to be discussed in the future.

How you can assist us

Tell Us Your Needs

The more information that you can provide about what you need, the better we can support you. You can do this by talking with our staff and participating in any activities that we offer. We will listen to you.

Tell Us When We Are Doing a Good Job

If you are extremely happy with something that we have done, please let us know! This will help us keep our services great and secure more services in the future!

Let Us Know If You Are Not Happy

If you are unhappy with the way that you have been treated, the services we provide or a decision that has been made we want to know about it.

Any feedback, complaints and appeals will be dealt with fairly, promptly and without retribution.

You can provide feedback, complaints and appeals in a way that suits you:
